Write to: BARBIE FASHION, 387 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10016
Hey, kids — since we print your name, age, city and state, please include them on your letters.

Dear BARBIE,

Hi! I'm Angela Sabas and I'm from the Philippines. I'm 9 years old now.

I just love playing Barbies. I love reading BARBIE comic books. I have lots of Barbies. I rush to play Barbie.

I have a friend that is also very fond of Barbie. There are many games and other things to do in our house, but when she gets here, we pass all the hours playing Barbie.

Well, it's time to say goodbye.

Angela Ma. Protacia Martinez Sabas, age 9
Philippines

Thanks for writing to us, Angela! It's always fun to get letters from BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION readers who live in far-away places! Check out our next letter!

Dear BARBIE,

Hi! I'm Mariam Mahmood. I am in the fifth grade class, and study at Springfield School. I am 10 years old. I collect BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION comics every month, and read them over and over again, till the next issue arrives at the bookstore.

I have lots and lots of Barbies, Skippers, Midgees, Courtney's and Kens. I just love to play with them. I have a playhouse in which I sit and play on Saturdays.

I would like to know if Barbie is imaginary or real.

Mariam Mahmood, age 9
Karachi, Pakistan

A good question, Mariam! Barbie is a doll, so you can play with her, pick her up, carry her around. Sometimes, when we truly love something, it takes on a life of its own. Barbie lives in the hearts of girls and boys around the world. Your love for her makes and keeps her very much alive!

If any of our other readers would like to know more about the Philippines, where Angela lives, or Pakistan, where Mariam lives, check your atlas or encyclopedia. Ask a parent, adult, or your school or public librarian for help. Good luck!

Dear BARBIE,

Your comic book is a sensation! I especially like it when you teach me to make neat crafts at the end.

Well, gotta go! Say hi to Ken!

Meghan Luttrell, age 8
Dade City, FL

We hope you enjoyed "Sea Shell Shop" in this issue. Watch for more exciting and fun craft projects in the future, Meghan!

Dear BARBIE,

I read your comics a lot. I especially like the story "The Special Athletics." It was the best.

I like to draw you and Ken. I have a lot of cardboard dolls.

Leslie Phonrath, age 7
Glendale Heights, IL

So, Leslie, you like to draw pictures of Barbie and Ken? Why not send some to us! Unfortunately, we ran out of room in this issue, but in the next issue we will print some of the fabulous fashions that our readers send us! Check out other issues of BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION for example, and send those delightful designs winging their way to us — at the address atop this page!

Dear BARBIE,

My name is Nicole and I'm 9 years old. I don't like boys or anything, but I think you should include Ken more often. I think that there are just as many boys reading Barbie as girls.

I'm sorry that I sound so rude, but a lot of kids like me because they know when they ask for my opinion, they know that they are going to get the truth, good or bad.

Anyway, I just wish that everyone in the world would be as kind as Barbie.

Nicole McKee, age 9
New Baltimore, MI

Your opinion counts, Nicole, because it's yours! We didn't think you rude; we thought you presented your views simply and clearly. We enjoy letters like yours. We know that honesty is a valued quality to have in a friend. Your friends are very lucky!

Be sure to read BARBIE FASHION #34 next month, where you'll find a "constructive" story featuring Ken!

Dear BARBIE,

My name is Catherine, but everyone calls me Cat, because I like cats. And I also like Barbie dolls.

By the way, I am 8 years old, and I like BARBIE comics. I was wondering if you could do a BARBIE story with a cat in it.

Catherine Hudson, age 8
Arlington, TX

You're in luck, Cat! Wait till you pick up next month's BARBIE FASHION where you'll read a story about a witty "City Kitty"!

Dear BARBIE,

Hi! My name is Taylor Hull. I'm 11 years old.

I wanted to tell you how much I love Barbies and BARBIE comic books. Barbie fashions are as beautiful as they are unique.

When I grow up I would like to be a ballet dancer. Sometimes me and mom design costumes.

I admire Barbie's kindness and ability to help the world, through programs such as recycling.

Keep up the good work!

Taylor Hull, age 11
Denver, CO

Those are admirable qualities, Taylor! The good news is anyone can emulate Barbie's kind and helpful ways. It's easy to offer a smile or a few kind words to people. And most cities have recycling programs now. Find out how to get involved — or even start one yourself! (Check with a parent, adult, teacher, or city official for more information!)

Saving the world will get done one small step at a time. We can all do our part by being kind to others, recycling, and thinking of and sharing with others unique and creative ways to make the world a better place!

Dear BARBIE,

My name is Jacqueline, but everybody calls me Jackie. I have seven of your comics. I like to play Barbies, and so does my mom. But it's very hard to play with her because she is deaf. We can't communicate very well.

Jackie Abner, age 10
Shirley, MA

Playing with Barbies is a great way to communicate with your mom, Jackie!

You know, we all communicate in other ways besides words — this very page for example! Writing and reading are only some of the alternative methods of communication. Check out your hand gestures as you speak to someone — there's more being said than just the words you're using! Also, many deaf people communicate through sign language, which can be studied very much like any foreign language. Check with your local public library for more information!

Good luck!
